From Monday DECEMBER 1, to Monday DECEMBER 8, 1766.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

TUESDAY, September 30.

The Queen's Palace, St. James's Park, Sept. 29, 1766.

THIS morning, between eight and nine o' clock, the queen was happily delivered of a princess. Her royal highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, his grace the archbishop of Canterbury, and several lords of his majesty's most honourable privy council, and the ladies of her majesty's bed chamber were present.

Her majesty is, God be praised, as well as can be expected; and the young princess is in perfect health.

This great event was immediately made known by the firing of the Tower guns: and in the evening there were bonfires, illuminations, and other demonstrations of joy, in London and Westminster.

At the court at St. James's, the 26th day of Sept. 1766.

PRESENT,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty, in Council.

WHEREAS his Majesty hath received information, that the price of wheat has gradually increased ever since the ports were opened by the expiration of the act of the last session of parliament, prohibiting the exportation of corn, and that in the port of London, the price of wheat has been for two successive market-days, above forty-eight shillings the quarter Winchester measure; and it is upon the strongest grounds to be presumed to be still rising.—His majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of his privy-council, (pursuant to the powers vested in his majesty for that purpose, by an act passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of his late majesty George the Second) hereby prohibit the making, extracting, or distilling of any kind of low wines, or spirits from any wheat, wheat meal, wheat flour, or wheat bran, or any mixture therewith, from the date hereof, until the fourteenth day of November next: whereof all persons concerned are to take notice, and yield due obedience to his majesty's command. hereby signified. W. BLAIR.

[Thus far the Gazette]

LONDON, September 30.

On Saturday morning early expresses were dispatched to all the seaport towns in this kingdom, with an order for laying an embargo on all the ships laden with corn for exportation.

The princess born yesterday is, by birth, princess royal of England. It is remarkable there has not been a princess royal born while her father was king of England, since the reign of king Charles I. whose eldest daughter, princess Mary, was mother of our glorious deliverer king William III.

Yesterday at noon came on at Guildhall the election of a lord-mayor for the year ensuing, when (on account of the indisposition of Sir Francis Gosling, who is next in turn to the present lord mayor) sir Robert Kite, and sir Nathaniel Nash, Knts. were returned by the Livery to the court of alderman, who chose the former to serve that office. The recorder, in opening the business, took notice to the livery of the indisposition of sir Francis Gosling, and that his health not permitting him to serve that high office, he therefore at present declined soliciting their voices.

OCTOBER 2.

Last night, about nine o' clock, her royal highness, the princess Caroline-Matilda, was married by his grace the archbishop of Canterbury, at the chapel royal at St. James's. His royal highness the duke of York stood as proxy for the king of Denmark; and at six this morning her majesty set out from Carlton-House, on her voyage to that kingdom. Lady Mary Boothby, with some other persons of quality, attend her majesty to Harwich, where she is to remain at the house of Griffith Davis, Esq; collector of the customs, till such time as it may be convenient to embark.

Yesterday there was a grand levee at St. James's, when his majesty received the compliments of a great number of the nobility, who came to town on the double happy occasion, of the queen's delivery of a princess, and the nuptials of the princess Caroline-Matilda. After the Levee there was a privy council.

We are informed that the right hon. Richard Rigby, Esq; member for Tavistock, will be appointed one of the post-masters general, in the room of lord Grantham.

Yesterday the hon. Thomas Robinson, son of lord Grantham, kissed his majesty's hand on being appointed one of the lords commissioners of trade and plantations.

Extract of a letter from Leghorn, July 15.

It has been rumoured here, that the Corsicans have of late been building a number of flat bottomed boats, with intention to make a descent upon Genoa, with a body of 30,000 men, and by one bold stroke revenge the severities which they have so long suffered from their old oppressors.

OCTOBER 4.

A patent is preparing for creating his royal highness prince Henry, the king's youngest brother, duke of Cumberland, which will pass the seals in a few days.

It is said, the sum of 15,000 l. per annum, which the late Duke of Cumberland enjoyed before the late rebellion, will be settled by parliament on the present duke.

Yesterday the right hon. the earl of Northumberland kissed the king's hand, on being created duke of Northumberland. It is said his grace will be appointed groom of the stole.

Extract of a letter from Urchfont, Wilts, dated Sept. 29.

"My lord Chatham has ordered his bailiff here, to sell wheat to the poor, and those of a middle rank, in the parish, at four shillings and six pence a bushel, Winchester measure. As his lordship's estate in his hand is above four hundred pounds a year, and runs chiefly on corn, his charity will be more extensive, and claim the greater merit. It is hoped this example will encourage charity among the great."

SOUTH-CAROLINA,

By his Excellency the Right Hon. Lord CHARLES GRANVILLE MONTAGU, Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the said province, and Vice Admiral of the same.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the common goal in Charles-Town hath been on Sunday night, being the seventh instant, feloniously broke open, and the following persons, viz. Edward Gibson, James Ashworth, and John Tilly, committed for house robberies, Roger Martin, John Lawrence and John Arts for horse stealing, and Antonio Christian for a murder, have feloniously made their escape: I have therefore thought fit to issue this my proclamation, hereby offering a reward of TWENTY-FIVE pounds proclamation money, to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring to said common goal in Charles-Town, any of the said offenders, for each person so apprehended, and brought to goal. And I hereby require and command all magistrates, constables, peace officers, and others his Majesty's liege subjects, to be aiding and assisting therein.

GIVEN under my hand, and the great seal of the province at Charles-Town, the eighth day of December, Anno Domini 1766, and in the seventh year of his Majesty's reign. C. G. MONTAGU.

By his Excellency's Command,

GOD SAVE THE KING.

SOUTH-CAROLINA

WHEREAS on Monday the 8th day of December, 1766, between the hours of one and two in the morning, the eight undermentioned prisoners, feloniously broke out of, and escaped from, the public goal of Charles-Town, viz.

EDWARD GIBSON, (a mulatto) a stout well set man, with short black curly hair, and very sickly.

JAMES ASHWORTH, a tall lusty man, of a swarthy complexion, and short black hair; both committed by Robert Weaver, Esq; for robbing Loveless and Gibson's store.

ROGER MARTIN, a young man of about 27 or 28 years of age, of a middling stature, well set, and wears a cap.

JOHN LAWRENCE, a tall thin young man, of a dark complexion, and wears his own lank hair, rather long; both committed by Thomas Bull, Esq; and others for horse stealing.

JOHN TILLY, junior, a lusty, well set, middle sized man, long visaged, and very hairy, committed by Stephen Bull, jun. Esq; for house robbery.

JOHN ARTS, a short thin young man, of a dark complexion and wears his own black hair; committed by Joseph Curry, Esq; for horse stealing.

ANTONIO CHRISTIAN, (a Spaniard) an old thin man, of a yellow complexion, has lost some of his fore teeth, and has for some years been well known in this province, committed by Stephen Bull, jun. Esq; for murder.

ANDREW JOHNSTON (a free negro) by trade a carpenter, and well known about Charles-Town, detained for debt.

This is therefore to certify, to any person or persons that will apprehend and take any of the abovementioned criminals, so that they may be brought back to the aforesaid goal of Charles-Town, that they shall immediately, on the delivery of all, or any of them to the provost marshal, or keeper of the said goal, receive FIFTY POUNDS currency for each and every criminal, so taken and delivered, from ROGER PINCKNEY, Provost Marshal.

Charles Town, Dec. 8, 1766.

By Order of the RIGHT WORSHIPFUL

BENJAMIN SMITH, Esq;

GRAND-MASTER;

THE provincial GRAND ANNIVERSARY and GENERAL COMMUNICATION of the most ANCIENT and HONOURABLE SOCIETY of FREE and ACCEPTED MASONS in South Carolina, is appointed to be holden in Charles-Town, on Saturday the 27th day of December next, being the FEAST of ST. JOHN EVANGELIST, when ALL BRETHREN then in the said province are desired to assemble by Nine o' clock in the morning, in the Lodge-Room at Mr. Dillon's, in order to proceed to St. Philip's church, where a sermon, suitable to the occasion, is to be preached by the Rev. Mr. JOHN TONGE, a Brother.

The PRESENT Masters and Wardens of the seven regular constituted Lodges, under the provincial Jurisdiction, or their Deputies, are particularly desired to be present.

TICKETS, without which none can be admitted, may be had by applying to any of the Stewards of the Grand-Lodge, viz. James Simpson, Esq; Messrs. John Barfield, Maurice Simons, Paul Townsend, John Dart, and John M'Call, jun.

By the Grand Master's Command,

ROBERT WELLS, G. Secr.

In the Grand-Lodge of South-Carolina, Nov. 3, 3766.

ANY Gentlemen in the Country, who may incline to send their Sons to Dellient & Alexander's SCHOOL for education, will find convenient accommodation for boarding, lodging, and washing, at a very reasonable rate, in the same house where the school is kept.

ALL persons are forewarned from hunting or landing on Morzyck's Hunting Island in St. Helena's parish; as I am determined to prosecute all offenders. JOHN NORTON.

ST. JOHN's in Antigua, October 25.

LAST week was brought in here a sloop taken up to the Eastward of Montserrat, without a living creature on board. Her cargo consists of flour, lumber, &c. She is supposed to be from New-York. Her decks were under water, her lumber port open, her binacle burnt, and she floated by the lumber on her decks; she is now libelled for salvage in the court of vice admiralty, by Captain Keeble, of the sloop Gloucester, who brought her in.

GUADALOUPE 22.

All the circumstances we can collect, relative to the sloop brought in here by Capt. Keeble last week are, viz that part of the crew were Frenchmen (Dutch and Spaniards) that in their watch they rose on the other part of the sloop's company killed the captain, supercargo and steamer, but spared the life of the mate to assist them in conducting the vessel.—That being to windward of this island, and fearing to be detected for their horrid crime, they determined to destroy the sloop, and accordingly knocked out her lumber port; after which finding that she would not sink, they set fire to her and left her taking themselves, with the mate, to the boat, who whilst they were sleeping, ran her ashore near St. Kitt's, and immediately he jumped out and got safe to land. They afterwards soon perceiving what had happened, got the boat off and made the best of their way, supposed for St. Eustatia. It is said, governor Verchild has sent to the governor of that island, to have them secured.

By a gentleman of credit, arrived yesterday from Dominica, we are assured, that 50 sail of vessels were lost in the storm of the 6th instant at Guadaloupe. And from Montserrat we have accounts, that their provisions and many pieces of canes are destroyed; that several of the houses in Plymouth town are abandoned, the people not daring to live in them tho' fear of suffering by the falling waters, and that the damage done that island by the late bad weather, was computed to amount to several thousand pounds.

Letters from St. Vincent's mention their having suffered in the general calamity: Governor Ottley, Col. Young, and other gentlemen having their flourishing canes laid intirely flat and ruined, besides other mischief sustained by the tempest.

NEW-YORK, NOVEMBER 17.

We hear there will be no money emitted this session of assembly; the restrictions being such, that our governor by his orders, cannot give his assent to any money bill, unless it contains a clause, by which it cannot be of force until his Majesty gives his assent to the same.

In consequence of the scarcity and dearness of provisions in Europe, as mentioned in our last, we learn, that upwards of twenty sail of European ships arrived last week in different ports of America, in order to purchase wheat; some of which are come to this port, others to Philadelphia, and some gone to Maryland: This must of consequence, raise the price of wheat and other provisions upon us, already too high for the poor of this city: And the present exorbitant price of firewood in this place, cannot but be exceeding alarming.
